

CAMP RULES

1. The Scout/Guide Law is the Law of the Camps/Events.
2. Punctuality is the hall mark of the Camps/Events. All calls are obeyed quickly and promptly.
3. Participants are not allowed to go outside of the Camps/Events without proper permission of the Leader of the Camps/Events.
4. When Uniform is to be worn, it worn completely and correctly. It is worn during the entire training sessions and activities.
5. Visitors are allowed to meet the participants during spare time (Lunch time / Evening time ) after taking the permission from the Leader of the Camps/Events.
6. Smoking, drinking alcohol and substance like Gutkha, Tamakhu, Charas, etc. are strictly prohibited during the Camps/Events.
7. All cases of accident, ill health or injury, however slight, are to be reported immediately to the Leader of the Camps/Events through the Duty Patrol Leader.
8. All case of indiscipline/hurdles and disobedience to the rules of the Camps/Events will be dealt with strictly by the Leader of the Camps/Events. He reserves the right to take suitable action against the delinquent person including expulsion from the Camps/Events immediately. Such persons will loose their right to claim Travelling expenditures and relieving order, etc.
9. After opening the Camps/Events, nobody will be permitted to register as participant in the Camps/Events.
10. The participant must have authority/ recommendations of the State Associations at the time of reporting to the Camps/Events. Without proper recommendation letter of the concern State Association, permission to participate in the Camps/Events, may be denied.
11. Places meant for sanitation and bathing should only be used for such purposes.
12. Damage to the property of the Training Centres caused by indisciplined act of participants would be seriously viewed and charged by the Leader of the Camps/Events.
13. Valuable things may be deposited with Quarter Master of the Camps/Events for safety purpose.
14. Participation Certificates o the Camps/Events may be refused to participants not following the rules and are indisciplined.
15. Lights out time in the Camp must be strictly adhered to by all. Between lights out and Rouse perfect silence must be maintained.
16. In case of joint Scout/Guide leaders Camps, Male participants will not enter the Female Tents and similarly Females will not enter the Male Tents, during the camps/events.
17. In case of loss of mobile, the Leader of the Course will not be held responsible.

Leader of the Course